

Associate Attorney

An established, multi-state real estate and creditors' rights law firm is seeking a qualified associate attorney to support its Tampa-based Florida practice. This position offers a competitive salary and benefits package based on experience.

Requirements: The candidate must be a member in good standing of the Florida Bar, and licensed (or be able to obtain a license in short order) in the Florida federal district and bankruptcy courts. Applications will be accepted from newly licensed attorneys, but 1-3 years of civil litigation experience is preferred. The candidate must be able and willing to handle a significant volume of cases within the field of creditor's rights. The candidate must be familiar with resolving issues in discovery practice, depositions, and conflict resolution. Appellate experience and knowledge of TILA, RESPA, FDCPA, and the Bankruptcy Code are preferred. The candidate must demonstrate strong leadership skills, written and verbal communication skills, and must be willing to assist in growing the firm's presence as a top-performing firm. The candidate must value reputation and be willing to proactively develop relationships in the industry in order to be viewed as a trusted partner and advisor by both clients and colleagues. Court appearances at hearings and trials will be required, and some attendant travel may be required. The candidate must be familiar with the Florida legal system, and must exhibit a commitment to superior client support, confidence and unfettered judgment.

Company Profile: Albertelli Law, also known as ALAW, was founded in 1997 by James E. Albertelli and is a full-service creditor's rights law firm representing institutional and private lenders in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, Texas, and the US Virgin Islands. ALAW is proud to offer the services of a diverse attorney team specializing in residential and commercial transactions, foreclosure, bankruptcy, complex litigation, loss mitigation, and the disposition of troubled assets (REO). ALAW has a strong commitment to the community and development of the law as evidenced by its pro bono endeavors, writing and research of issues of first impression, and development of political action in the area of legal professionalism. Furthermore, ALAW's commitment to technology and efficient case management provides the scalability and responsiveness necessary to provide unparalleled representation in an ever-changing legal landscape.